PRESIDENT'S LETTER

---

Greetings,

I hope everyone is staying safe and healthy as the US prepares slowly to reopen and get back to normal. As Safety Professionals, we must continue the passion we have for making sure our fellow co-workers are safe, healthy, and motivated to do their best every day. 2020 will be a year that we all look back on and discuss at the dinner table or campfire.

What will your story be? It was (and still is) a unique time in all our lives and full of challenges. Take time to create your story. What did you do personally to stay positive, healthy, and remain safe? Focus on what you did to grow as a person, as a safety professional. This reminds us that we can't take things for granted. We must stay focused and be prepared to respond to any adverse conditions that threatens our safety or health.

We are strong as individuals, but stronger as a team. We hope to see you at future ASSP events as soon as we can!

Take care,

Jeff Fox, CSP, CIT – Chapter President

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We are looking for at least two safety professionals to participate in our October chapter meeting who have extensive experience and unique ideas for engaging employees in the safety process. If you have some unique non-traditional ways that you have engaged employees in safety, and you would be willing to be a panel member at our October 28 meeting (8-9:30am), please contact Kevin Beswick at kevinb@rms-safety.com. If you know of someone else who may be a good candidate for this opportunity, please feel free to pass this information along.
