PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Greetings!

We have a great Summer planned out for you.

This past Thursday, we had another Breakfast and Best Practices at the Mornings Breakfast and Brunch in Fishers. It's a nice little informal meeting where we get together for good food and conversation. Again, I learned a lot about AI – like ChatGPT – and how EHS professionals are using it to help write procedures and policies. I find that amazing. Afterwards, I logged on and asked ChatGPT to create an OSHA compliant Hazardous Communication Written Program....and it did. May seem silly to you – but I would have never have know this without Breakfast and Best Practices.

On Friday May 10th at the BCSP Headquarters on Guion Road – we are having an AI Presentation. Scott Lowe and Ben Ross are going to discuss using AI and Data Analysis to improve Safety. BCSP is a great place to hold a meeting - I hope you can join us for this meeting. The topic is very interesting and becoming more important as AI get further developed.

Then In June, we are going go head to Ritz Safety for a presentation by 3M on Respiratory Protection. This meeting has been popular in the past – make sure you sign-up right away.

We are going to follow this up with a Membership Appreciation Event at Guggman Haus Brewing on June 20th from 3PM to 5PM – just nice little get together for all us to network and enjoy each other's company. Space is limited – so sign-up soon!

In July, we are heading to Purdue in Lafayette for a Behind the Scenes of EHS on a College Campus, followed by our Premier Event: Future Safety Leaders Golf Outing at West Chase Gold Club in Brownsburg.

This event is sold out every year and is a lot of fun – lots of good food – and fabulous door prizes. We are always looking for Sponsors and people to help put this event on. We still have openings for hole sponsors, lunch sponsors and sign sponsors - you can sign up for these here. Please let us know if you are interested in helping out or sponsoring.

Again, THANK YOU for everything you do to help protect people, property, and the environment.

NEWS

Mental Health Awareness Month

The world is constantly changing – for better or for worse – and it can be overwhelming to deal with everything going on around you. While society is getting more comfortable discussing mental health, it can still be hard to know “Where to Start” when it comes to taking care of your own well-being.

This May, Mental Health America will help you:

- LEARN how modern life affects mental health with new resources to navigate our changing world.
- ACT by building your coping toolbox so you can manage stress, difficult emotions, and challenging situations.

- ADVOCATE to improve mental health for yourself, your friends and family, and your community.

For anyone struggling with the pressure of today's world, feeling alone, or wondering if they can feel better, this is Where to Start. This article was reposted from the Mental Health America website - learn more here.

Meg Switala, our April speaker shared information on their free tool “start the conversation”. You may sign up for your free tool kit Start the Conversation Tool Kit Request - TiER1 Performance

Construction Focus Committee

The Construction Focus Committee aims to provide valuable insights, updates, and discussions on various construction related topics. By gathering professionals who work directly in construction or closely with construction projects, we hope to create a forum for sharing best practices, addressing challenges, and exploring innovative solutions. As part of our ongoing efforts to enhance the quality and relevance of our monthly meetings, we would like to invite anyone with experience in the construction industry to join our Construction Focus Committee. If you are interested in joining the Construction Focus Committee please reach out to Daniel Brewer: dbrewer@Meyer-Najem.com
